

Poacher 2008

Camping Dates

Groups may arrive from 8.00am on Saturday 26th July. Any groups arriving before this time will not be allowed onto the Lincolnshire Showground. Activities and entertainment finish on Friday 1st August, allowing departure from the Lincolnshire Showground on Saturday 2nd August.

Around the World

The theme for Poacher 2008 is Around the World in 7 days-Environments of the World. Each Sub-Camp is named after a climate or environment from around the world:

- Mountains
- Desert
- Jungle
- Pole2Pole
- Rivers
- Oceans
- Underground

Your Sub-Camp will be writing separately to allow your group to get "themed up" and prepare for any specific events on your Sub-Camp!

Camp Rules

1. A high standard of camping will be expected and maintained.
2. All groups leaders will be responsible for internal and external security during Poacher 2008, and for overseeing those in their charge
3. All Scouts, Guides, leaders and staff must wear their Poacher 2008 necker at all times (except when asked to remove it for safety reasons on specific activities)
4. All suspicious incidents should be reported immediately to staff at the Administration Centre
5. Lost & Found property should be handed in at the Administration Centre
6. All vehicles must be parked on the designated parking area outside the site except those vehicles authorised for emergency or on site use. These vehicles will bear special passes.
7. All vehicles are to display a car pass at all times, with appropriate detail completed
8. Other than for emergency purposes a 5mph speed limit will apply within the Showground
9. All Scouts, Guides, leaders and staff must be made aware of, and comply with, the fire and accident rules.
10. Avoid disturbing others with your radio, tape recorders, walkmans etc
11. The organisers accept no responsibility for any loss or damage to vehicles, equipment, or personal property for the duration of the Poacher 2008
12. In the event of any dispute the Management Committee's decision will be final. This includes up to the exclusion of an individual or group or unit from the site.
13. All activities and events will be run in accordance with the Scout Associations' Policy, Organisation & Rules and with Girlguiding UK's Guiding Manual

Day Visitors

Unfortunately Poacher 2008 will not be open to Day Visitors. No visitors will be accepted on to site to ensure the safety and security of all those involved with Poacher.
